CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

EVENING SALE

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1921

IN THE GRAND BALLROOM OF THE PLAZA

FIFTH AVENUE, 58TH TO 59TH STREET

BEGINNING AT 8.15 O'CLOCK

WILLIAM GEDNEY BUNCE, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1840—1916

A. Shilling
1—APPLES

55. Height, 10 inches; length, $14\frac{1}{2}$ inches

LYING in a small, gray-white china dish are a large ripe golden-yellow apple with a soft bloom on its delicate skin, and the half of a rosy apple, its flesh exposed even to the seeds of the split core. Back of the dish, on the yellowish-mahogany table, is a large apple, red and light green; glossy green grapes are scattered on the table beside it; and the background is a rich, dark green, modified by reflections from the table—the whole in “juicy” color.

Purchased from Messrs. Cottier & Co.

From the I. T. Williams Collection, 1915.

Property of a Private Collector.

AUGUSTIN THÉODULE RIBOT

Mr. Harmon

FRENCH: 1823—1891

2—THE COOK

25.

Height, 11 inches; width, 8 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches

HARMONY softly melodious—a motive in rich browns, olive and gray, and the tones of sun-warmed flesh. The background is dark brown, varying in intensity, the whole surroundings are dark, with a subdued light from above on the right falling upon the gray-white cap and coat of a hardy peasant who is seated beside a dark brown basket of green vegetables.

Signed at the lower right, T. RIBOT, 1853.

Purchased from the late Daniel Cottier.

From the I. T. Williams Collection, 1915.

Property of a Private Collector.

JAMES ABBOTT McNEILL WHISTLER

AMERICAN: 1834—1903

3—GREENWICH

410.

Height, 6 inches; length, 10 inches

THE Greenwich docks, in the middle distance, with shipping tied up and two or three smoking chimneys, lie beyond a foreground of gray waters. The evening sky shows tints of warm, smoky red below and, above, dull yellow blue—the whole harmoniously united.

Signed at the lower right with the Whistler butterfly device.

Property of V. WINTHROP NEWMAN of London and New York.

EMIL CARLSEN, N.A.

AMERICAN: 18—

J. H. Lynde
4—STILL LIFE

95.

Height, 17 inches; width, 14 inches

A PLUMP chicken, dressed and laid on a table with white cloth, the head with feathers left on the neck, according to poulterer's custom, hanging over the edge; on the table, also, a glass flagon; background of green-gray.

Signed at the lower right, EMIL CARLSEN, and dated '94.

Property of a Private Owner.

CHARLES ÉMILE JACQUE

22—ON HIS WAY

240.

Height, 15½ inches; length, 18½ inches

Low scraggly vegetation accented by occasional knobs of shrubbery, on the uneven and wild land of a rolling heath, shares the ground surface with exposures of white soil, varied by expanses of a ferrous red. In the distance are outlying houses of a town, and a church spire is seen. In the foreground, passing to the right, is a lone man of stocky build, carrying a bundle in a bag over his shoulder and accompanied by his dog.

Signed at the lower right, J. F. RAFFAËLLI.

From M. Knoedler & Co., New York.

23—A REFRESHING DRINK

60.

Height, 18½ inches; width, 15 inches

An Arab chieftain, with white and yellow bernous and turban, mounted on a beautiful white steed, has stopped in an oasis and is drinking a cup of water which has been handed to him by a native girl, in red with white headdress, who stands at the horse's head with her left hand on the breast strap of the jeweled harness. The chieftain holds by the muzzle with his left hand his long rifle which he has let slip to rest on the ground, and a large blue water jug stands nearby. Landscape setting of palm trees and blue sky.

Signed at the lower left, G. WASHINGTON.

From the Estate of MARY A. ROBBINS.

ADOLPHE MONTICELLI

E. H. Kraushaar

FRENCH; 1824—1886

24—THE FARMYARD

425.

Height, 15½ inches; length, 24 inches

IN front of a low stable, of whose roof only the lower edge is visible, a large gray rooster and hen are leading a quiet, unruffled life in the warm glow of strong sunlight, and another, darker fowl is in shadow against a side building at the left. In the corner is a rain barrel. The stable is a yellowish white, with hints of rose, and its uneven roof of thatch or ancient tile is brown and black and gray and green and red, weathered and "barnacled," and in the harmony of time softened in tone withal. The rudely built heavy wooden door is open, and in the shadows within a pair of expressive long ears are conspicuous. Coming down some stone steps at the right, outside, is a chubby small boy.

Purchased from Messrs. Cottier & Co.

From the I. T. Williams Collection, 1915.

Property of a Private Collector.

ITALIAN: 1826—1899

26—THE COURT ON A JOURNEY

160.

Height, 25 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches; width, 19 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

PROCEEDING up a road which leads through a mountain pass, a great company of splendidly mounted Arab notables wearing rich vestments and carrying aloft their lances, are escorting two canopied conveyances, one with light blue the other with rose-colored curtains. It is evidently a déplacement of importance, perhaps a journey to a Mohammedan shrine. The upper part of the composition is occupied by rocky ranges and dull blue sky.

Signed at the lower right, A. PASINI.

From the Estate of MARY A. ROBBINS.

RUDOLF ERNST

GERMAN: 1854—

27—ORIENTAL INTERIOR WITH FIGURE

130.

Height, 24 inches; width, 19 inches

IN a marble corridor with gold ornamentation and brilliant stained glass windows, an Arab with venerable white beard and elaborate ceremonial dress stands facing the left, three-quarters front, left hand resting on hip. In his right hand he holds a copper ewer from which he is filling glasses which are inset in a circular table surrounding the standard of a tall lamp that extends much higher than his head.

Signed at the lower right, R. ERNST.

Property of a Private Collector.

28—ENTRANCE TO THE MONASTERY

90.

Height, 25½ inches; width, 21¼ inches

A STONE stairway of angular course mounts from a court, within an embrasure of a gray building whose walls are all but bare of adornment. Sunshine and shadow play upon them, and half-way up the stairs a woman in black stands looking sadly over a balcony railing, while at the foot of the stairs a cloaked man, hat in hand, looks up at her.

Signed at the lower right, TOULÈDE—J. G. VIBERT.

29—LANDSCAPE, SHEEP AND SHEPHERD

525. Height, 18¾ inches; length, 20 inches

In verdant lowlands plentifully watered by green canals a village of creamy walls and red tile roofs lies in sunshine amid dense trees, and in the transparency of a cloud-shadow over the foreground is a shepherd with his flock.

Property of a Private Owner.

JEAN BAPTISTE CAMILLE COROT

FRENCH: 1796—1875

Mrs. H. F. Boardman.
30—LANDSCAPE

(Panel)

950.

Height, 16 inches; width, 12½ inches

Just beyond a simple foreground with tufts of herbage a little stream passes bordered by thickly growing clumps of willows. Here a woman is tending her two grazing cows. Tall, slender trees rise from either side of the stream and on the farther side, half-hidden by the willow foliage, is a little group of white-walled houses. The sky is composed of delicately modified white clouds with touches of blue in the upper part.

Signed at the lower left, COROT.

Property of a Private Collector of Boston.

31—THE BROOK

170.

Height, 26 inches; length, 28½ inches

EN PLEIN AIR a fair young woman nude, with a light drapery at her hip, is observed in profile to the left, seated on the sloping bank of a brook which courses down the center of the composition in the seclusion of a wood, the leaf-filtered sunlight playing in color on foliage and stream and the soft flesh.

Signed at the lower left, ROBERT REID.

Purchased direct from the artist.

Property of VICTOR HARRIS, Esq.

GUSTAVE COURBET

FRENCH: 1819—1877

Mr. F. Spencer

32—THE BLACKSMITH'S SHED

400.

Height, 23½ inches; length, 29 inches

IN the shade of trees that stand at the right, and of the projecting tiled roof of a French brown farm building occupying the center of the composition—which is a wing of an adjoining low brown building-group on the left—two farm horses are tethered, a white and a sorrel, and an aproned man is currying the white one. A slant of sunshine illumines the horses' coats and glints softly from the grassy ground, and the foliage of the trees stands out against a greenish-turquoise sky veiled with creamy-white clouds.

This painting has been exhibited both as "The Blacksmith's Shed" and as "The Blacksmith's Shop."

Exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Collection of Alexander Morten, New York, 1919.

33—GLADE IN PIERRE WOODS, IN ÉVAUX,
NEAR CHÂTEAU-THIERRY

(Panel)

Height, 18 inches; width, 13¼ inches

THE middle portion of this graceful composition is filled with the foliage of trees which stand on either bank of a little stream passing through level fields. At extreme left is another tree, tall and slender at the foot of which are two women, one of them gathering wild flowers. In distance, a church and other buildings; high sky of warm-tinted white clouds with some qualified blue above.

Painted, 1855-1865. Recorded in Robaut's "L'Œuvre de Corot," Volume III, No. 1920, and reproduced from drawing by Alfred Robaut.

Durand-Ruel Exhibition, Paris, 1878 (No. 106).

Signed at the lower left, COROT.

35—HUNTING IN NORTH AFRICA

160.

Height, 26 inches; width, 21½ inches

A HUNTING scene in the French possessions of Northern Africa depicting two tribal chiefs, one a swarthy, bearded Arab, the other a negro, both riding superb horses side by side toward the spectator, the Arab with a falcion on his wrist held high, the other with his long-barrelled gun pointing upward. At left, two hunting dogs are in full chase. The landscape setting shows a plain stretching away to rocky hillsides and sky of clouds with blue in upper right.

Signed at the lower left, A. PASINI, and dated, 1867.

Fish

41—FISH WITH STILL LIFE

500.

Height, 29 inches; length, 36 inches

THIS is an example of the craftsmanship of this artist at its highest. The composition is made up of three great fish in the foreground; there is a black pot lined with brass, another vessel almost lost in the shadows, and a piece of green pottery which alone would be a masterpiece. The modeling of the fish, the textures, the peculiar moist slipperiness of fish are all done with the brush of a magician. With pure pigment has he done all this, and done it as few men had the power to do. No finer example of his art has appeared in a long time.

58—PORTRAIT OF CAPTAIN THOMAS DRAKE

Height, 36 inches; width, 28 inches

THIS is the life-size portrait of a man in early middle life seen to the waist. He wears a military costume with a high double-breasted blue coat with two rows of buttons close together, a high collar trimmed with gold galloon over red, large epaulettes, a decoration on his left breast and a sword belt around his waist. The left hand is resting on the belt. The body is in full face and the head in three-quarters view to the left, somewhat raised, and the eyes turned in the same direction. The face is framed by a mass of curly brown hair and whiskers trimmed rather closely to the cheeks. The background is a graded tone of warm gray.

The sitter for this portrait was Capt. Thomas Drake, originally Thomas Trayton Fuller, but who assumed by sign manual, under the settlement of Sir Francis Henry Drake, Bart., the additional surnames and arms of Eliot and Drake. He was created a baronet in 1821. Was captain in the army and served throughout the greater part of the Peninsular War.
